

Treasurer

Kira Spears

Kira Spears has worked in education for over 7 years serving students in grades preK-12th in various capacities. She attended Hampton University where she volunteered for numerous campus organizations. She graduated earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and was accredited with several distinct awards and honors. After graduating she used her degree to pursue her passion to serve children. She has worked and volunteered inside and out of the public-school systems, in community programs and worked as a servant leader intern for the Children's Defense Fund Freedom Schools Program for 3 years. She accredits her Freedom Schools training as one of the most rewarding catalyst that widened her knowledge, passion, and wisdom for working with youth.

Kira has much experience working in after school programs, summer programs, and mainstream and special education. She specializes in program development, social emotional learning, restorative practices, and curriculum development for students.

She now works as a Restorative Practices Coordinator in Minneapolis Public schools. She develops, promotes, and facilitates restorative conferencing and mediation for her school community. In addition, Kira is also a real estate agent working in her family's business helping to develop business goals and strategies, agents, and assisting with client relations. She also has served as the financial secretary of her church for the last 5 years.