

S.M.A.R.T. Summer Program

2-3 Teacher

Michelle Miller

Michelle Miller is a Minneapolis native and North High graduate. After high school, Michelle attended Harris-Stowe State University in St. Louis, MO for her undergraduate degree in Secondary Education, then returned to MN to obtain her Master's Degree in Education at Hamline University. Following her formal education, Michelle has taught English Language Arts to middle school and high school students for 10 years. She also has worked as a nanny for the MN Timberwolves, volunteer coach for Girls on the Run, and as a summer school teacher at Divine Institute. Michelle lives in Brooklyn Park with her daughter and boyfriend. She loves to read, cook, exercise, travel, and host a monthly book club in her free time. She has cared for children since the age of 12.